Dear Professor Ledoux:

Many thanks for Maxweiler's book which I am now returning to you. Through the kindness of M. Goor, the Belgian Consul at Ottawa I have received an English translation of the book so that I need keep yours no longer. I have read a good portionof it with the greatest of interest. It sets forth the Belgian position very plainly and convincingly.

With kind regards and the season's greetings,

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor Ledoux,

December 22nd, 1915

Dear Professor Ledoux:

I am writing on behalf of the Staff of the University who I know will thoroughly endorse what I am doing in sending to Madame Ledoux and yourself our kindest greetings for this Christmas season. It has been a great pleasure to us to have had you in our midst since last spring. You have I know formed many pleasant friendships since that time and your presence with us has been much appreciated. We know that it must be a time of great sorrow for you on account of the continued distress of your own country. We hope, however, that the time of its restoration is drawing appreciably nearer and that your worst troubles are in the past. At this season of the year when in the midst of our distress we still endeavour to retain the happiness of Christmas we all wish that Madame Ledoux and yourself may be able to share with us in some of the kind thought that the season brings with it.

Yours sincerely,

Professor A. Ledoux,
Toronto.

President.
